Detailed Information about Events:

1. Title of the event: Emerge
2. Date and duration: 21st April,2022
3. Venue/online: Ram Lal Anand College
4. Nature of event: Inter-College
5. Invited speakers, their affiliation and brief profile of each speaker:

Vaibhav Kanwar- He is a 26-year-old motivational speaker, branding and sales consultant, and business coach, is highly recognized in his field. With expertise in strategic planning, business development, entrepreneurship, and marketing strategy, he emphasizes the importance of pursuing one's passion. As the CEO and Founder of CLAPBOX, a leading music instrument manufacturing and distribution company,

Vaibhav has successfully built a renowned brand and achieved significant growth.

Aakarshan Sethi- The guest is an experienced consultant with expertise in the government domain, startup ecosystem, consultancy, events, and technical services. They have worked with prominent firms like EY, Collabera, HCL, and SingEx. Currently employed at Series B funded startup Airmeet, they excel in entrepreneurship, start-up consulting, market research, and recruitment. Additionally, they are a strong consultant, mentor, and speaker with a wide range of skills.

Parth Bhalla- Parth is an accomplished serial entrepreneur with expertise in blockchain/Web3, AI, neuroeconomics, and public speaking. His remarkable journey includes becoming a tech founder at the age of 14, selling a company for a significant amount, and patenting a blockchain infrastructure technology at just 16. As the founder and CEO of Threely, Parth aims to make Web3 accessible to all, providing intuitive and hassle-free infrastructure. He has also made significant contributions to Covid-19 relief efforts through Project Hetu, a non-profit network he founded.

6. Brief summary of the event: Emerge-An entrepreneurship & management centric fest was conducted by MARG in collaboration with E-Cell, including a plethora of comprehensive, insightful, informative, and fun events giving a chance for young minds to inculcate the spirit of entrepreneurship, professionalism and inquisition within young minds. It consisted the following activities:

Bid-To-Build- The bid to build was a marketing competition, held in 3 different rounds. In total 7 teams participated in the competition. The first round was the bidding round in which the teams had to buy at least 2 products each and had to make a single product/company with those products in the further rounds. After this round 2 teams were disqualified and the rest 5 teams went on to the next round which was the Presentation making round. The teams then made there presentations and presented the same to our judges, which were Mr. Akarshan Sethi and Ms Pooja. After this round the final round came up, which was the case study round. Our judges cross questioned the participants and gave them case studies for their products made.

After this round, the judges declared the winner and the runner up for the competition. In essence, the competition was a testament to the innovative power of business building and the unwavering passion of the students involved. It left an indelible mark on everyone involved, creating a legacy that will continue to inspire future generations of competitors.

Dying Pitch-The Dying Pitch Competition consisted of multiple rounds. In Round 0, teams were shortlisted based on a preliminary quiz. Round 1 involved a quiz round where teams selected companies from a prize pool. Round 2 required teams to create PowerPoint presentations with a business plan. Round 3 featured business pitching and cross-questioning. The competition was judged by Mr. Parth Bhalla and Ms Riyanka Jain and winner was determined based on equity exchanged and the quality of the business model, with cash prizes awarded.

Speaker session- Vaibhav Kanwar delivered a speaker session on the topic of the butterfly effect, where he shared insights from his personal life journey, highlighting both his failures and successes as an entrepreneur. He emphasized the importance of small actions and choices that can have a significant impact on one's life and business. Through his experiences, he inspired the audience to embrace the butterfly effect and make conscious decisions to create positive change in their own entrepreneurial endeavors. 73 students attended the session.
