Monthly Report

SEPTEMBER 2023-24

SEPTEMBER

September is an important month in terms of the events and days which falls into this month. However, this year September was a bit more certainly dominant because of the G20 summit. It was the first summit which was held in India. The New Delhi summit was the eighteenth meeting of the G20. It was held in Bharat Mandapam International Exhibition–Convention Centre, Pragati Maidan, New Delhi on 9–10 September 2023.

CLEANLINESS DRIVE

To honor the G20 summit the National Service Scheme Unit with collaboration of National Cadets Corps of Ram Lal Anand College organized a cleanliness drive. In an effort towards a cleaner surrounding, in line with the recently concluded G20 summit held in New Delhi, 56 volunteers of the NSS unit came together on 5th of September 2023 and cleaned the college campus. With numerous NCC cadets from the college battalion, 34 male and 22 female volunteers of NSS picked litter from the college building and the area around the college building and wall. These small acts of positive impacts motivate the unit to work hard.

ELECTORAL LITERACY CLUB

As DUSU elections were happening after 4 years in Delhi University, and to spread awareness amongst students related to elections. We did a voter enrollment campaign under the Electoral literacy club. The NSS unit of RLAC organized 3 events, first as pledges and declarations are commitments to do something. Keeping the same in mind and spirit, we organized a Pledge taking ceremony on 17 August, 2023 at 10:00 AM to make people aware of elections, around 100 volunteers took the pledge with 53 being male and 47 female.

ELECTORAL LITERACY CLUB

Another important event was a Debate Competition spreading the message of freedom of speech, the NSS unit of RLAC organized this on 15th September, 2023 at 11:00 AM. About 80 students actively participated and made the event worth witnessing. The debate was conducted under the guidance of our programme officer DR. Anurag Sharma. Winners were awarded with certificates and cash prizes. Lastly as we know that social media has become a mighty tool for information sharing and exchange of ideas, The NSS unit of RLAC launched an Online Awareness Drive on 20 September, 2023 at 3 PM.

This was done through online meetings and sessions. About 95 volunteers actively participated where 40 being males and 55 females. The queries and doubts of volunteers were also taken up and discussed. All these events are to educate students about the electoral process, the significance of voting, and the role of youth in elections. With all these events the Unit tried to spread awareness towards cleanliness and made all the efforts to make people aware and realize the importance of Swachhhta.

5 KM AIDS AWARENESS RUN

To increase awareness Delhi State AIDS control society (DSACS) Government of NCT of Delhi organized Youth Festival 2023 viz Red Run under the youth intervention programme of National AIDS control organization (NACO), GOI. DSACS planned a 5km Red Run to and organize for students (Men, Women, and TG) at Netaji Subhash University of Technology on 17th September at 3pm. The volunteers of National Service Scheme, Ram Lal Anand College, Delhi University enthusiastically took part in this Red Run to contribute to the awareness programme. Total of 70 volunteers participated in the run, in which 50 were females. From NSS RLAC 2 Volunteers participated, one female and one male. There were two runs conducted one for males and one for females in the festival. In this amazing red run, One of our female volunteers Muskan Mohindroo got 6th position and another male volunteer Harshdev Singh secured 9th position.

G-20 UNIVERSITY CONNECT

In turn the next event was G-20 University connect finale. The theme of G-20 Global summit was 'vasudhaiva kutumbakam'. India got their G20 Presidency this year with the aim to build unanimity to address global challenges collectively and effectively. Under this G-20 University connect finale was organized in which the NSS unit of Ram Lal Anand college along with the NCC unit participated. There were 50 volunteers who participated with keenness. All the volunteers gathered at Jawaharlal Nehru Stadium at 11:00 am where they got their ID-cards along with a goodie bag which had a T-shirt, cap, magazine, notebook, pen and a Stamp based on the G-20 theme. We interacted with Honorable Prime Minister Mr. Narendra Modi. He made the students realize that India's potential lies in the Hands of Indian youth.

He also released 4 books related to G-20 which are also Available online. With this the event came to an end by 5:30PM.

The event was a success.

SWACHHTA HI SEVA

Under a long 15 day event of Swachhta Hi Seva (SHS) campaign which was celebrated from 15th September to 2nd October this year under the joint aegis of DDWS & MoHUA as a prelude for the Swachh Bharat Diwas (2nd October) with nationwide participation NSS RLAC organized several events. By participating actively in all these events the volunteers portrayed their responsibility towards the society and people. The month was packed with a lot of fun activities which gave volunteers a chance to contribute towards a greener and cleaner environment.

SWACHHATA HI SEVA

60 Ram Lal Anand College NSS volunteers from the University of Delhi engaged in a one-hour shramdaan on October 1, 2023 as a part of the Swachhata Hi Seva campaign to clean their neighbourhoods and neighbouring areas.

To begin the activities, the volunteers gathered at the south campus at 10:00 AM. For the sanitation drive, the volunteers visited JJ Colony, a slum in Moti bagh.

SWACHHATA HI SEVA

The volunteers put in a lot of effort over the course of an hour, and they were able to significantly improve the cleanliness of their neighbourhood. They disposed lots of trash, including plastic bags, bottles, and food scraps. Additionally, they cleaned the streets and drains, which enhanced the drainage system and reduced clogging. The volunteers were pleased with themselves for improving their surroundings. Our college, Ram Lal Anand College, was also awarded a participation certificate for its involvement in the Indian government's Shramdaan for Swacch Bharat initiative.
