HASRATEIN

It is our desire to pursue street theater as a form of protest.

Hasratein began their activities for 2016-2017 under President Sunita Singh, Vice President Md Asif Khan, Secretary Amit Kumar. Core members also included Steven S George ( music), Aayush Aggarwal, Bhavna Ghai, Dipali, Parikshit Sharma and Naman Jain. The first round of workshops were conducted by Sunita and Steven in the month of June. We conducted our auditions on 24 Aug 2016, a day full of energy, enthusiasm and vibrance. After 2 rounds of screening we selected 25 students who succeeded for the 5-day workshop. Hasratein today stands bold and confident with Sanjeev, Varaangi, Anusha, Nandini, Prerna, Mahima, Aniket, Vishvender, Anmol, Ravi and Kaushik.

Despite the surface democratic structure, India is ruled by an alliance of capitalists, feudal lords and politicians where police, educational institutions, religion, cinema and advertisements are mere political tools. One of their most potent weapons to perpetuate themselves in power is to keep the people backward. Caste was something which we all are experiencing since childhood and it all seemed absolutely normal. Our problem is the normalcy of caste system and that's why we started our work on this blissfully ignored reality of India – 'Caste'. 'Supanwa ka Sapna by Shahid Anwar of Bahroop Arts became an inspiration for our annual street production 'Sawarna Yug'. The history hitherto is the history of class-caste and gender struggle. Through 'Sawarna Yug' we attempt to voice the ones who were denied voices in every era, though every era renounces itself as Golden Era. 'Sawarna Yug' has been performed in various higher education institutions ranging from IIT Mumbai to IIT Kharagpur to JNU. The play has reached many colleges of Delhi, NSD and this time we did many public performances from malls to Dilli Haat and streets.

Hasratein worked on a stage play 'Bottle' reflecting on corruption inside the framework of democracy. We grabbed 3rd position at SRCC, the competition was organized by CONCOR.

Hasratein in collaboration with Chaaron Theatre Group organised a stage show on Waiting For Godot (in Hindi) in our college amphitheatre on 7th August, 2016. Also, Hasratein performed a play for NCC 'Aaj ka Yuva'. We performed 'Sawarna Yug' in college on the Sports Day.

'DNA' was our next mission towards the big question of our life. (1) We have evolved from Fish to Human beings in 6000 millions years, now where are we heading to? (2) Nero was a cruel king of Rome but what concerned us, who were the people dancing in Nero's Party? (3) Are we the people who are dancing in the party? (4) Where are the intellectuals of the society when the whole world is being burned? (All these questions lead to a dynamic, flaring and vivacious stage play 'DNA'.

Hasratein this year was covered by French TV Channel "C'est un monde". They had come to India to cover student participation in politics of India, for the theatre they chose Hasratein as a cultural front to represent Indian Theatre. The video is available on youtube as "Inde : le theatre au service de la politique".

Performing for the people is not always a 'feel good' action but a process of engaging with ideas and issues. It is essential to have excellence in the craft, the form, the aesthetics, and be alert on questions of ideas and politics.

"Chitra" the Photography Society

Ansel Adams says: "You don't take a photograph, you make it." Chitra, the photography society of Ram Lal Anand College, intends to train students with the nuances that inculcate in them the necessary ingredients to be the makers of photograph. Rather than aestheticizing photography as an art-form, the society endeavours to present it as a mere medium vis-a- vis which the unspoken is heard, and the subject of the picture is not looked at but looked into, and is so subtly visualised that at times it becomes more real than reality.

The Society's core team comprises of Neeraj, Sachin, Himanshu, Ayon, Shalu, Vishal, Agnivesh, Shubham, Avijit, and Vivek.

The Photography Society aims to develop photography skills through excursions, exhibitions, workshops and competitions whilst having the opportunity to meet other photography enthusiasts. There are no requirements in terms of photography skills. The Society wants to create a community where mutual learning is cultivated. And if one doesn't have the latest camera, don't worry! That's not what it is about, one can use whatever camera one has, and even a phone.

Apart from seizing every moment, across events of every magnitude that were organised in the college, the team members in individual capacity participated in competitions in colleges/universities over Delhi NCR. Himanshu Bora secured first position in Jesus and Mary College's event titled Tasveer. Sachin and Shalu came second and third in Sri Venkateswara and Kirori Mal College respectively. The Society also hosted an inter college photography competition during the annual college fest of RLA, and Mr. Ritin Gilotra (a renowned Bollywood photographer) was the honourable judge of the event.

In sync in with Tony Benn's philosophy: "Most things in life are moments of pleasure and a lifetime of embarrassment; photography is a moment of embarrassment and a lifetime of pleasure," the Society is committed to create and re-create such adorable moments.

From RLAC Chapter

For more than three decades, SPIC MACAY (Society for the Promotion of Indian Classical Music and Culture Amongst Youth), has been devoted to foster the beauty of India's rich cultural heritage among the students of various schools and colleges across the country. The society has been assertively persuading the educational institutions to organise programs of Indian classical music, dance, yoga, craft, traditional painting, talks and workshop on ancient arts, which are on the verge of dying. Its motive is not only to preserve the ancient forms of art but also to develop the sensibilities of the students that allow them to appreciate and enrich our most precious cultural values and tradition. RLA College has been associated with SPIC MACAY in its noble movement for many years. Every year the college, in collaboration with SPIC MACAY, organises such programs, which help the students to learn more about the significance of Indian Classical Art and Culture.

RLAC society of SPIC MACAY is majorly run by students with the support of faculty coordinators. In order to form an efficient and enthusiastic team and to elect a student coordinator, an orientation program was conducted in the beginning of the academic session (2016-17) to educate the students about the functioning of this society. As a result as many as 60 volunteers from various disciplines registered to work for the society. Under the guidance of society's faculty co-ordinator Dr. Rakesh Kumar along with the dedication of student coordinator Preeti (a second year B.Sc Hons. Computer Science student), the society achieved another milestone.

On 4th February'17, the society organised a musical concert by one of the most renowned Hindustani Classical vocalists-Dr. Ashwini Bhide-Deshpande who was accompanied by veteran musicians namely Pt. Mithilesh Jha on Tabla and Ms. Paromita Mukherjee on Harmonium. The program started at 10:30 AM with a lamp-lighting ceremony. The hall was chock-a-block to experience a voice that soothes the soul. To an overwhelming applause of admiration and respect, Ashwini ji began her rendition with Raag Bhairvi-a Morning Raaga and sang two bandishes- "Arre Mann Ram" and "Jago Mohan Payare" in teen taal evoking the Almighty. The power of her melodious voice truly transported the audience to the realm of divinity. It was further enhanced by another Bandish- "Aao Balam Hum Tum Khelat" in Raag Hindol. Before this, Dr. Deshpande enlightened the audience about the significance of Raag Hindol-a Spring Raaga with an exception of four Swaras. The rhythmic pattern of this Raag is that of an oscillation of a swing corresponding to the blooming of flower and falling of leaves in the spring season. Nothing could have been better to accelerate the joy of spring than this Bandish rendered in the voice of Dr. Deshpande. Her singing, marked with poise and deep reflection unraveled her artistic imagination and aesthetic insight. Throughout the recital, Ashwini ji was well supported by two taanpura players-Medha and Shivangi from Gandharva Mahavidyalaya.

The two-hour musical journey came to an end with a question-answer session where Dr. Deshpande addressed the queries of students and explained the importance of different ragas. While responding to a question she suggested: “One doesn’t really need to have a formal training to appreciate classical music but must have a child like imagination to feel its beauty”. Being an academic herself, Dr. Deshpande has become an inspiration for the youngsters who want to pursue their musical career along with academics. RLA College feels fortunate to have had a dynamic personality like Ashwini ji as a celebrity guest in our college. Students of RLA chapter of SPIC MACAY deserve a special mention for displaying a well planned team effort to make the event successful.

Furthermore, with the support and encouragement of our Principal Dr. Rakesh Kumar Gupta, the SPIC MACAY Chapter of RLAC could successfully organise a three-day workshop from 22-24 March '17 on Madhubani painting by the President Awardee Smt. Ambika Devi under the competency building program. Forty students actively participated in the workshop and availed this opportunity to exhibit their innate artistic skill and interest towards folk art and craft. The talent of our students was impressive and Ambika ji appreciated the paintings made by the students. The workshop truly benefitted the students as it had been a great learning experience for them.
