GRASSROOTS

The Western Music Society
Ram Lal Anand College

Grassroots, the Western Music Society of Ram Lal Anand college, University of Delhi was formed in the year 2019 in order to provide a unique platform to music enthusiasts.

In the current academic session Grassroots held its orientation programme on the 6th October 2023 and followed this up with two rounds of auditions for recruitment of new members.The society presently has a total of 23 members, which includes vocalists, guitarists and a drummer. New office bearers were appointed on 25th October, 2023. Regular vocal training and rehearsal sessions were held under the able guidance of Vashu Tangri (B.Sc.(H) Computer Science, Final year) who is an accomplished Pianist and Thangliensang Zote (B.A. Program, Final year).

Team Grassroots gave a lively performance at the Freshers 2023 held on the14th October 2023. This was followed up by an Open Stage event in collaboration with Illusion (The Western Dance society) , Andaaz (The Anchoring society) and Drishyam (The Film And Photography Club).

Grassroots performed 'Make Me A Channel Of Your Peace' at the inauguration of Mikrovitae '24 and Automata '24, the annual festivals of The Departments of Microbiology and Computer Science, respectively.

Their performances were enjoyed and lauded by the audience. Adil (President, Grassroots) participated in Kala Prawah where he sang a semi-classical song.

The Grassroots Band represented RLA college at the Fortune Institute of international Business where they got the opportunity to showcase their talent.

During Splendour '24, Grassroots organised Epiphany, The Western Acapella competition which drew participant groups from 10 colleges from colleges in Delhi. Thunder, the Battle of the Bands saw enthusiastic performances from 6 colleges.

Annu (Vocalist and guitarist, Executive Member, Grassroots) represented RLA college at the Sevaarth '24, the NSS festival of PGDAV college on the 18th and 19th of April, 2024. He won the third position in MIC CHECK.