

Annual report 2019-20

Inara-The Fine Arts Society

Inara, the Fine Arts Society of Ram Lal Anand College stands true to its name, believes in thinking outside the box to create art that's extraordinary and goes beyond imagination. Its team comprises of 25 exuberant students whose work brighten the college making it more vibrant and colour.

The society held an art exhibition in the college on 20th August 2019 displaying their creativity in wonderful art forms. It got attention of many students and admired by all the faculty members as well as the Principal. Auditions was organised on 22nd August 2019 to incorporate new members. The office bearers of the society are: Bhavya Mehta (President), Srishti (Vice- President), Anand Kumar (Secretary), Priya Kumari (Joint-Secretary) Anuj Handa (Treasurer), Saif Ali Khan (Art Head), Hitesh Taneja (Digital Chief).

The society also successfully organized three competitive events (Art Showcase, Still life, Skin wars) during Splendour, 2020, the Annual Fest of Ram Lal College. In the various competitions held across Delhi University, our team member secured prizes. Saif Ali Khan secured the 1st position in canvas painting competition in SPM College; Priya Kumari secured the 2nd position in poster making competition (MLNCE); Shreya, Neha, Eklavya & Muskan Shokeen secured 2nd position in newspaper dress competition both in Dayal Singh College and Zakir Hussain College. Anand secured 3rd prize in online painting competition organized by JNU; Muskan Garcha secured 1st position in Best Out Of Waste in MLNC (M); Eklavya bagged the 2nd position in Comic Con competition at Archarya Narendra Dev College. Furthermore, Inara members obtained 3rd position in the Art Exhibition organized by SPM College and Special Mention Prize in the art exhibition at Zakir Hussain College.

Contributed by Bhavya Mehta (President, Inara)

