

Annual Report of AIKYAM, the North East Students Welfare Society 2021-22

We are a family in which the members do not fear being judged, help develop new talents and hone the existing ones. We help each other grow and in the process discover ourselves, through intermingling, making new friends, developing and cultivating talents, overcome fear, hesitation and try to heighten our achievements.

AIKYAM with a motto of 'Embracing Unity' aims at providing platform to the students especially from the North East to feel at home far away from home, overcome anxieties, the difficulty of language barrier, differences in culture, helps develop bond among students from not only different states of the North East, but also those from different parts of the country through meetings competitions and cultural activities with guidance of faculty members Dr. Sarbari Nag, Covener, Ms. Leimiwon Zimik, Co-Convener, Dr. Ritambhara Mishra, Ms. Pallavi Dutta.

For this the society organized various competitions throughout the year, so that the students got to participate in items of their choice and improve their talents. Major part of the session was held online. So most of the events were online too. Towards the end of the session, the Annual Function of the society AARANYA '22 was organized albeit in a different form than what was originally planned due to the unfortunate fire incident in the Amphitheatre. Nevertheless, the students participated enthusiastically in large number and made it a success.

In celebration of Swachhata Pakhwada 2021, AIKYAM organized a Best out of Waste Competition on 4th September, 2021. Participants from different departments of the college and also from other colleges of the University of Delhi took part in it.

They used different types of waste material like used plastic bottles, plastic wrappers of food items, old newspaper, ice-cream sticks, old CD, old jeans, leftover chapatis to make items like self-watering pot, ecobrick, photo frame, flower vase, bird feeder, hand bag, gulab jamun etc. and gave description and justification of using such waste material to make items that can actually be used and will prevent wastage and environment degradation. Some selected photos are given below.

Dr. Deepti Bhardwaj, Dr. Swagata Karmakar and Ms. Pallavi Dutta judged the entries.

On 27th April, 2022, AARANYA 22, the annual fest of the society was celebrated through quiz and painting competitions, although originally a cultural program was planned before the fire incident in the Amphitheatre. In both the competitions students from different courses and different parts of the country studying in the college participated. They wore their respective traditional and ethnic dresses with which the college became vibrant showing multitude of Indian culture getting amalgamated together. This promoted inclusiveness of students of different states of North East along with that of rest of India. Quiz was especially enjoyable and a learning experience about different aspects of North East India.

Through paintings students prepared visual treats within a limited time given to them, while showing their talent. Paintings were judged by Dr. Deepti Bhardwaj and Dr. Urvashi Kuhad.
