

Ajadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav And Our Responsibility

India is celebrating Ajadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav this year on the occasion of 75 year of independence. Gandhi Study Circle of Ram Lal Anand College also organized Webinar on 6 August 2021 on the topic "Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav and Our Responsibility". This webinar was held on Zoom and Professor Ramesh Bhardwaj, Director, Gandhi Bhawan was invited as the keynote speaker. The webinar was attended by more than more than 100 students and faculty from various colleges of Delhi university. The webinar was not limited to colleges in Delhi only. It was attended by more than 30 professors and students from university like SGT, IGNOU, Government Industrial Training Institute, DBHPS Chennai, DIET Keshav Puram, DR College, Education Department Patna etc.

The webinar started with a 1 minute silence for the peace of the departed soul of Dr. Devendra Kumar. After which the Vice President of the committee, Neelam welcomed the keynote speaker of the program, Professor Ramesh Bhardwaj, Principal Rakesh Kumar Gupta, Convenor Professor Subhash Chandra Dabas, teachers and all the students.

Taking the program forward, Neelam invited the principal Rakesh Kumar Gupta. He Appreciated the various steps of the Gandhi Study Circle and remembered Dr. Devender Kumar and his efforts towards the committee. Coming to the topic and speaker Principal said "Gandhi Bhawan is full of vibrancy and Activity where you can feel the vibration".

After this, the convener of the committee, Professor Subhash Chandra Dabas recalled the subject of the webinar and the importance of Gandhiji. Thanked the keynote speaker who came to the Webinar and asked him to invite him.

Pratibha, the secretary of the committee, introduced the keynote speaker of the program, Professor Ramesh Bhardwaj, the director of Gandhi Bhavan, and invited him to discuss the topic.

Professor Ramesh Bhardwaj thanked the Principal and the teacher before starting his speech. He talked about History and the Present. He mentioned the perseverance exhibited by Gandhi ji in order to maintain the harmony and integrity of the country. He elaborated that freedom isn't authorised right but it's a feeling that comes from within with purity and revolution to ideal existence.

After enlightening us with such wonderful thoughts, the session continued and next was the Ques and Ans session which was coordinated by Dr. Tyagi!

Students innovation and thirst of curiosity was completely quenched by his answers.

Moving towards the end Neelam asked profesor Sanjay to deliver vote of thanks. He mentioned every aspect of dedication and hardwork performed by the team and convenor.

In this way seminar succeeded in enlightening and emancipating participants thoughts with words of wisdom.