

DECEMBER Month REPORT

Poster making

The first event of the month which was organized by National Service Scheme of Ram Lal Anand College was a poster making competition on the occasion of World AIDS Day, December 1st. It was in collaboration with Red Ribbon club and was also supported by Delhi States AIDS control society. The theme of this event was “Remember and commit”. A total of 30 volunteers participated in this competition and the winners were awarded with cash prizes. The painting competition for AIDS awareness not only showcased the artistic talents within the community but also played a crucial role in advancing the dialogue surrounding HIV/AIDS. Through the universal language of art, the event succeeded in educating, inspiring, and promoting a sense of solidarity in the ongoing fight against AIDS.

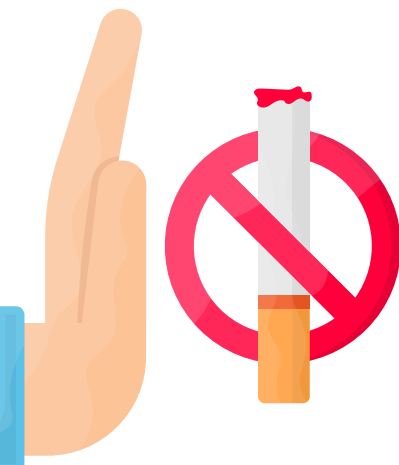

International Volunteer Day

Volunteering is at the very core of being a human. No one has made it through life without someone else's help. The National Service Scheme of Ram Lal Anand College to acknowledge the selfless contribution of volunteers towards the society organized an event by requiring the volunteers to submit past/present photos showcasing volunteerism on 5th December 2023. A total of 132 volunteers, 68 being female, actively participated in the event showcasing their contributions towards society while reflecting the core activities of NSS like plantation drive, blood donation, educational camps, material donation drives which are the true essence of social service and these pictures showed the charm of the event.
