A Certificate Course in the History of English Literature

Couse Objective:

As students of Literature we study historical periods through literary texts. We account for the context while negotiating various genres of the respective periods. This course wishes to put the context at the forefront and wishes to show the trajectory of socio-historical and economic changes leading to the production of literature. The course would be helpful in preparation all exams after B.A(Hons) English, ie, entrance to Masters, M.phil/Ph.d and NET.

Course Mode and Duration:

The course classes held over Zoom/Google Meet will commence on 9th Jan 2022 and end on 19 March. The course will be delivered in 40 hours. All classes will be held over weekends.

Faculty:

Professors from different universities like University of Toronto, Mahindra Ecole, Sophia College Mumbai, IIT Indore and University of Delhi have been invited to lecture.

Fees:

Rs. 1000 for students outside of Ram Lal Anand College

Evaluation:

Students will be evaluated on the basis of quizzes and course completion project.
