The NSS unit of Ram Lal Anand College celebrated the 75 'Amrit' years of Independence on August 15, 2022. The Independence Day Functions commenced at 11:30 am. The NCC Unit of RLAC received & escorted our chief guests Prof. S.C. Garkoti & Hon'ble Principal Sir to the dais. After hoisting of the National Flag & singing of the National Anthem by hon'ble guests, students, teaching & non-teaching staff, we set out with our list of events & celebrations with bags full of enthusiasm.

Gave an impetus to our zeal, the inspiring words of hon'ble Chief Guests , followed by ANO Sir Maj. Sanjay Kr. Sharma. Their speech spanning from reminiscing the struggles of Indian Independence to winning freedom and the involvement of the 'youth brigade' in national growth, exhorted us all. They also praised the NCC Drill. Following it up, The NSS unit set up a 'Flag Painting on Fist' desk , attracting the teachers, students & other staff-members alike. Meanwhile, the 'Music Society' of our college permeated the patriotic air with their musical aroma of nationalism. Group Songs, Solo-by an NCC Cadet & other melodies decked the event.

Moving forward with our I-Day Celebrations, the NSS Unit hosted a 'Campus Plantation Drive'. Hon'ble Chief Guests, Program Officer NSS Dr. R. Jain, Prof. Maj. Sharma graced our noble initiative by planting saplings. A few were gifted to our guests as a mark of thanksgiving & appreciation. The 'Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav' celebrations could not have been more glorious, had our hon'ble guests, helpful teaching & non-teaching staff, sincere students, dedicated volunteers of NSS, the sharp cadets of NCC not turned up.
