RAM LAL ANAND COLLEGE | UNIVERSITY OF DELHI

Overview

Overview

National Service Scheme Unit of Ram Lal Anand College celebrated its first ever annual festival “SANKALP’21” with the theme Volunteerism: An Inspiration in Action on 11 and 12 April 2021 under the guidance of Principal Dr. Rakesh Kumar Gupta and Program Officer Dr. Rita Jain. The festival was held in online mode through the Google meet. The Inauguration Ceremony for the festival was held at 10:30 AM on 11th April where Dr. Rita Jain inaugurated SANKALP’21 accompanied by her words of wisdom for the organizing team. A glimpse of the exciting 2 days ahead was given via a timeline of events to be conducted in the festival. Ground work done by the NSS RLAC Unit before and during the pandemic was presented through a PowerPoint presentation. The two-day extravaganza consisted of three events which saw 72 female participants out of total 200+ from over 10 universities from across India.

THE STORY TELLING COMPETITION

Sanrachna - The Story Telling Competition

An event dominated by female storytellers saw 15 female participants out of the total 30 from over 10 universities who participated in the event. The competition allowed the students to showcase their narration and writing abilities. The first round of the competition was conducted on 11th April at 11:30 AM, and the second round was held on 12th April at 10:30 AM. In Round 1, the participants submitted their work in written format and top 10 participants got an opportunity to narrate their stories in Round 2. The entries in Round 2 were judged by a panel of judges consisting of Dr. Rita Jain (PO NSS) and Dr. Deepshikha. The top three winners of the competition were endowed with the cash prizes of Rs. 1500, Rs. 1000, and Rs. 500 respectively.

The poster is for the Sanrachna Story Telling Competition. It features a dark blue background with colorful, abstract patterns on the sides. At the top, it mentions the National Service Scheme (NSS) and Ram Lal Anand College, University of Delhi. The central text reads 'ORGANISES' followed by a hand icon with colored fingers, 'Sankalp '21', and the slogan 'Volunteerism- An Inspiration In Action'. Below this, it says 'presents SANRACHNA STORY TELLING COMPETITION ON 11TH-12TH APRIL, 2021'. A red circular badge highlights 'Cash prizes worth Rs. 2750'. At the bottom, it provides a registration link and contact information for Parveen Kumar (+91 8607976530) and the NSS RLC Instagram handle.

Talk Session

BY MS. ANUPAMA DATTA

Talk Session by Ms. Anupama Datta

Ms. Datta is the Editor of HelpAge India Research and Development Journal. She has been working with HelpAge India, a leading charity working for disadvantaged elderly, for the past 20 years. She gave a crisp, insightful and a very engaging talk. She shared her experiences with us in such a way that attracted the attention of attendees and inspired everyone present. The session was held on 12th April at 4 PM. Ms. Anupama Dutta in her talk session asked us to form a chain to help the elderly people. She told us the wide and brief meaning of family and what is the true meaning of volunteerism. At the end of her session, she told us to protect our environment i.e. the forests, the tribes, the birds and the animal species.

Closing Ceremony

Conclusion

The festival concluded with the Closing Ceremony on 12th April which started with the Principal Sir's words of wisdom. Events conducted by NSS RLAC in 2020-21 were presented and volunteers shared their experience in front of an audience of 110 which consisted of 50 female participants. Towards the end of the closing ceremony, cash prizes were distributed among winners of competitions followed by vote of thanks from the organizing team. Further, an E- certificate of participation was awarded to all the participants which completed this two day extravaganza which saw participants from prestigious institutes of IIT, NIT, BHU, UIET, Punjab University compete and learn with each other.

With the closing ceremony, the hard work of the organizing team of more than 30 volunteers became successful with no flaws whatsoever in any event. The volunteers worked in fields of social media marketing, graphic designing, anchoring, research and content writing etc. We thank every volunteer who played a role in making this event a success.
