

FEB 24, 2022

NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME RAM LAL ANAND COLLEGE UNIVERSITY OF DELHI

EVENT REPORT: THE FIRST OFFLINE MEET AFTER LOCKDOWN

02

INTRODUCTION

Owing to COVID-19 almost every work had been done in virtual mode but soon after the reopening of the college, the much diligent team of volunteers of NSS unit of RLAC organized its first physical orientation on 24th February 2022 at 3pm. A total of 147 volunteers of NSS unit of RLAC attended its first physical orientation, after almost 2 years, with great enthusiasm which led to more unity among all the volunteers.

INTERACTION WITH PROGRAMME OFFICERS & OFFICE BEARERS

As the event succeeded, the current programme officer Dr. Rita Jain and Ex Programme Officer Dr. Prerna Diwan enlightened the NSS team of volunteers. After that, all the office bearers, executive members and all the team leaders introduced themselves, and motivated the volunteers for more contribution in the society.

UPCOMING OPPURTUNITES

STRATEGY TWEAKS AND NEW INITIATIVES

During the speech, our programme officer, Dr. Rita Jain also gave an insight about the upcoming collaboration with world-renowned organisations like LADLI Foundation Trust, Indian Red cross society and Hero MotoCorp Ltd. will be illuminating us with the expertise of their respective fields such as Blood Donation Awareness Camp and Road Safety awareness programs.

In these programs, the volunteers would get to work with the respective officials, get to learn about the problems in depth and the best way to conquer them.

EXTRAORDINARY VOLUNTEERISM OF BATCH (2019-2021)

NSS is all about helping others, which was once again proven by the exceptional volunteers of our unit. All the volunteers proved their metal within the organization, and to celebrate the completion of their required time and plenipotentiary efforts provided by them in both online and offline activities, volunteers of the batch 2019-2021 were awarded by the current and previous programme officers with gifts and certificates of appreciation.

04

WRAP-UP:

“The betterment of the society is not a job to be left to a few, it's a responsibility to be shared by all”

The event became lively and vibrant with the chorus of NSS claps in unison, directed by our President. This really boosted zeal in volunteers and invoked energy on a hot and blistering day.

At last, there were refreshment were arranged by NSS RLAC for its volunteers. The event came to an end with a photography session of the NSS RLAC Family.

We pledge to imbibe the inspirational talk of our Programme officer moving forward and taking our unit to new heights.

GLIMPSES OF THE EVENT

