

Annual Report 2023-24

Society Name: Enactus Ram Lal Anand College

Annual Report Year:2023-24

Introduction:

The session 2023-24 has been one of the most productive and fruitful experiences for the society. Under the guidance of Prof. Seema Gupta, the quality of work executed has been exceptional, providing great learning opportunities to all team members. The society has seen commendable growth over the past year, leaving a mark among all Enactuses present in other colleges. Enactus Ram Lal Anand has emerged as one of the most well known youth societies of all time.

Aim

The Aim of Enactus RLAC is to initiate the mindset of social responsibility among young entrepreneurial minds so as to fully utilise their potential of creativity for the welfare of society. These young minds could bring in a significant change in the monotonous and niche industries prevailing in the market. Enactus is not just a college society, it is a global initiative which empowers students all across the world to step up and bring a change through the power of youth and entrepreneurship.

Standard Operation Process

The Enactus' SOP has a unique feature of constant throughout the globe as it is an international organisation that allows students to utilise their social entrepreneurial talents.

It includes 3 levels

- The Member
- The Core Team
- The Advisory Board

This Process starts in the 1st year of college where the students appear for the recruitment process and get selected to become the members of the society. These members work under their seniors (2nd and 3rd year students). Further they work along for 12 months to secure a position in the Core Team which comprises of 2nd Year students and leads the operations for the next 12 months in which the recruitment of new members is also included. By the 3rd year, this core team becomes the Advisory Board of the society and they hand over the operations to their groomed juniors which now become the Core.

EVENT SUMMARY :

Enactus RLAC organized a colorful and fun-filled Diwali event at the college campus, teaming up with Inara and the Student Union. The event featured engaging activities like a pottery workshop and Diya painting session. Students enthusiastically joined in for the event. In particular, the pottery workshop received an incredible response so much so that the time for the event had to be extended by one and a half hours. Students and teachers alike everyone wanted to try their hands at pottery making. To add to the festive spirit, we set up a stall where people could purchase Diwali essentials crafted from terracotta and ceramic, including diyas, showpieces, and more. Many students and teachers bought diyas and other ceramic products from the stall. For that entire day, the rose garden where the event was held turned into a colorful and buzzing corner with students making their own pots on the wheel on one side and painting diyas on the other. It was a delightful celebration that brought the college community together to embrace the joy of Diwali. Everyone including the Head of the Institution appreciated the event and expressed that more such live workshops should be conducted in future.

Feedback:

The very fact that the time had to be extended speaks volumes itself. Students and teachers both appreciated the event and actively participated in pottery making. Students demanded that more such events should be conducted in future so that everybody gets a chance to learn a bit about pottery.
