Heartiest congratulations to the Ram Lal Anand College fraternity for achieving the NAAC A+ grade!

We are proud to announce that our college has secured an A+ grade in the second cycle of NAAC Accreditation.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to our Hon'ble Chairpersons for their visionary leadership and unwavering encouragement, and to the members of the Governing Body, whose steadfast support, strategic insights, and dedicated commitment have been crucial to the growth and excellence of our college during the last five years.

I express my deep appreciation for the dedicated faculty members for their relentless pursuit of academic excellence, innovative teaching, and impactful research contributions. Your passion has profoundly inspired our students and greatly enhanced the perception of our institution.

I also thank the non-teaching staff for their efforts to ensure the smooth functioning of our college. Your support in administration, accounts, maintenance, library, laboratories and student services is invaluable.

I would like to express my heartfelt appreciation for our alumni for remaining an integral part of our college. Your continued connection and contributions, in the form of mentorship, career guidance and students scholarships is deeply valued.

I thank all my dear students, who are the heart of our college for their enthusiasm for learning, participation in co-curricular activities, and commitment to upholding our values that has played a crucial role in this achievement.

This outstanding accomplishment of our college is a testament to the unwavering commitment, hard work, and collective spirit demonstrated by every member of our college community. Let us take a moment to celebrate this milestone, while also reaffirming our commitment to continuous improvement and excellence in all spheres.

Thank you all once again for your dedication, teamwork, and belief in our shared vision.

With warm regards,

Prof Rakesh Kumar Gupta

Principal
