NOTICE

Centre for Human Values and Ethics, RLAC is offering Internship on community outreach applicable for students of semester 3 to semester 6 based on Under Graduate Curriculum Framework, 2022. IAPC consist of 60 hours volunteer ship in community outreach which will be equivalent to 02 credits like SECs. Students are supposed to do Internship during weekends or after 5 pm on week days.

Internship is available in the following NGO's:

1. Ladli Foundation – 25 Vacancy

Ladli Foundation is a grassroots-level non-profit organization known for implementing highly impactful & innovative social initiatives to uplift vulnerable people in urban & rural slums. In India, the organization is actively working at the national level in association with District Administrations and Police Departments with its effective community outreach and sustainable approach. (Qutub Institutional Area)

2. Healthy Aging India- 08 Vacancy

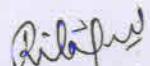

Healthy Aging India, an experimental and dynamic not for profit organisation is setting milestones in two most demanding sectors- Primary Health and Education. We are aspiring to provide quality complimentary education to government school children through the Intergenerational Learning Centre-IGLC and comprehensive health care to the elderly population in old age homes in Delhi-NCR (Srinivas Puri). Healthy Aging India reaches out to the community at large and brings health services at doorsteps of vulnerable elderly groups across different regions of the country.

3. Aarambh Organisation-10 Vacancy

The Aarambh Organisation is a registered, youth-led not-for-profit entity actively working across India to promote community development, youth empowerment, animal welfare, and environmental sustainability. Since its inception, it has grown into a pan-India platform with a robust network of volunteers across multiple universities and institutions, consistently striving to create meaningful social impact. Over the years, the organisation has undertaken various projects in underserved communities, orphanages, elderly homes, and remote regions — addressing critical areas such as education, hygiene, gender equality, sustainable livelihoods, and mental health awareness. (Project Sharda – Nangia Park)
